Total money raised during campaign will provide 80,000 meals to San Diegans in need

SAN DIEGO – (October 1, 2023) – California Bank & Trust (CB&T), one of California's leading banks, announced today that it has donated $15,000 in matching funds to Feeding San Diego as part of the annual San Diego Gives Campaign. As a result, a total of $39,928 was raised, which will help provide 80,000 meals to San Diegans in need.

"We are thrilled to stand behind and bolster Feeding San Diego, an organization that profoundly impacts countless lives across the region," said Steve Stuckey, EVP, San Diego Market President at CB&T. "We firmly believe that investing in our communities yields benefits for all. CB&T takes great pride in its commitment to the San Diego Gives Campaign, dedicated to assisting fellow San Diegans facing challenges."

Feeding San Diego provides more than 35.4 million meals every year to children, families, seniors, college students, military families, veterans, people facing homelessness and other underserved populations. They are the only Feeding America member in the region and distribute meals in partnership with 350 local charities, schools, faith communities, meal sites and food pantries. The entire San Diego Gives Campaign received funds from 4,120 donors and raised nearly $1.2 million in support of 338 local organizations.

"We are ecstatic about the results of this year's San Diego Gives campaign and are truly thankful for the generosity of California Bank & Trust in making it possible," said Ali Colbran, Feeding San Diego's director of development. "With the continued impact of inflation on San Diego County residents, it's vital for hunger-relief organizations to have the funding needed to continue programs that provide nutritious meals and help alleviate food insecurity."
